

Meet the Family Advocate

About Me

I have had the privilege of working with Children and Families since 2007. I have worked in a variety of services and capacities, ranging from teaching children and working with children living with disabilities to rehabilitation centers, hospitals, community development and social welfare centers. My passion for being in the helping profession and becoming a Family Advocate grew from volunteering in preschools and community centers. I love the way that each day in this job is different with new challenges and fun experience.
