About Me

Experienced over 8 years in providing supervision and guidance to children. Dedicated to helping children better understand the world around them and developing relationships with parents to enrich children's lives through play and learning. This will be my second year at Next Door and I am very passionate about what I do and I am eager to learn and grow every day. During my free time I love going to the movies, explore new places, and spend time with my three children.

Education: I am currently enrolled in Early Childhood Education at Ashford University Online. My goal is to graduate from Ashford University with my associates and get my bachelors at UWM.
