

Meet the Parent Educator

About Me

Hello, I am a Head Start and Early Head Start Parent Educator at Next Door. I have been a Parent Educator since May 2018.

I received my bachelors in Early Childhood Education and Art from the University of Wisconsin-Whitewater.

My studies is where I learned the impact early childhood experiences have on quality of life, as well as its socio economic impacts on greater society.

Although my focus is early childhood education, I try to remain educated in other topics that are critical to our humanity like politics, economics, climate change, and social injustices.

Schedule

Monday - Friday 8:00 am - 4:00 pm

Personal Statement

As an educator and human being, I believe that affordable and accessible education is a human right. I believe that housing, food, and healthcare are human rights. I believe that every woman, man, and child strives to live a dignified life and deserves to live a dignified life.

I believe children are the closest to the soul, where they have the emotional insights on how to make this world a more just and honest place. I believe adults must hold greater merit in the wisdom and honesty children bring to this life.

"To put the world in order, we must first put the nation in order; to put the nation in order; we must first put the family in order; to put the family in order, we must first cultivate our personal life; we must first set our hearts right."
— Confucius
