Covid Precautions

This year will be a bit different. Staff will be asking families for suggestions/recommendations for toys for their children. Staff will be doing a pre-packaged box for all children that are registered rather than have individuals shop for themselves.

There will be temperature checks when recipients and volunteers come into the building, and will be asked to wear masks. They can only have 20 people in the waiting area at a time due to space limitations with social distancing requirements.

What areas does Toy Shop serve?

The Toy Shop serves families living in Milwaukee County EXCEPT the following zip codes: 53110, 53129, 53130, 53132, 53154, 53172, 53207, 53220, 53221, 53228, & 53235. Families living in these zip codes are served by The Salvation Army's Toy Shop in Oak Creek. Please call (414) 762-3993 for information.

What ages of children can receive toys?

This year, only ages 0-12 will be registered. Therefore, the children must be born on or after January 1, 2008.
