Quamale Stanton

Hello. My name is Quamale Stanton, Former Chairman of Next Door's Policy Council & Father of Kareema & Quamale Stanton Jr. As some of you all may know I'm very involved in my children's lives which is why I joined the policy council in the first place. To go that extra mile and learn and contribute to some of the inner workings of Next Door. Also to help eliminate a stigma about fathers in our community not caring to be involved upbringings of our children. I would love to be voted in again and help in anyway I can. Thank You.

Quiantia Zollicoffer

My name is Quiantia Zollicoffer. My children are Londyn & Lu'mir Goodman. I enjoy being a mother. This role has helped me grow in so many different ways and has helped me to become the woman that I am today. I work in the Medical Field and also own my own small business (Miniced by Spinks). I am looking forward to serving as a policy council member here at Next Door and represent you all. I believe that I will have a meaningful impact and be part of a group that will represent you in decisions that would positively affect our Children and Next Door.
