July 12-July 23, 2021

Join us in celebrating over three decades of Books for Kids!

Help us host our largest book drive ever! During this two week event, you can help when you:

- Donate books from home
- Host a book drive
- Shop our Amazon Wish List for specially curated books
- Spread the word on social media
- Ask friends to make a donation

You can participate individually or form a team. Collect books on your door step, your work place, your gym, your local café, or as a group of friends. Promote your book drive, share our wish list, post pictures / videos of your activity, and donate – all through the event website.

The event will culminate in a virtual event celebrating the program's history and announcing the results!

Your participation provides literacy programs and books to build home libraries for more than 1,300 children each year.

Books for Kids has been one of Next Door's flagship programs for more than three decades. It has provided more than a million free books to countless children, their families and many Milwaukee organizations over the years.
