

Meet the Teacher

About Me

Hello, my name is LaNetreona Payne but I like to be referred to Ms. Nene. I am the associate early head start teacher in room 15. I have been teaching and learning with children of various ages since the age of sixteen years old. I am native to Milwaukee, WI and have four children of my own. I love to travel and spend time with my family. I am in love with art and creative activities.

Personal Statement

My ambition is to one day become a lead teacher. It takes a big heart to help shape little minds. I am passionate about influencing and encouraging children to be all they can be.

"Education is the foundation upon which we build our future."
