

Meet the Education Manager

About Me

I have been in the Early Childhood profession for over 20 years in many different roles. K5 teacher, assistant director, site director and now educational manager. I have been at Next Door for 4 1/2 years. Along with being an adjunct lecturer for UW-Milwaukee for 12 years. I enjoy helping teachers reach their full potential and helping children and families become successful.

I enjoy reading and playing games on my iPad when I have time. I have 3 children and 2 grandchildren. Both of my grandchildren have attended Next Door. 2 of my own children have attended Head Start. Now I have a senior attending UW-Platteville for Mechanical Engineering and a sophomore at Kentucky State University for Nursing. My oldest works full time at BMO Harris Bank.
